

PRIVACY POLICY

1.1 Privacy Statement

The British Columbia Netball Association is committed to protecting the privacy of its registered membership. Any personal information provided to BC Netball is collected, used and disclosed in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA).

The British Columbia Netball Association is obligated to gather specific personal information from registering members, such as name, gender, date of birth and postal code. This information is required for Insurance Records, and by the BC Sport Agency for funding applications. Other information such as address, telephone number and email is only obtained if the member supplies it voluntarily.

Any personal information BC Netball ask its membership to provide is collected under the authority of the FOIPPA. The information will only be used for the purpose of administering BC Netball services, informing members of training and competition opportunities and for statistical purposes. When the information is transmitted over the Internet, it is encrypted to protect against unauthorized access. The information will be stored in a secure location and will not be disclosed to third parties without the individual member's permission, except as required by law.
